New User Access Request Process Flow

Testing Process Review

- Each data user should have received an email from Axway indicating that data was available for download
- This email should have come with a link to the Axway portal
- Using your User ID, password, and Symantec VIP credential, you should have been able to log onto the site

- The data download process is a 2-click process
 - Click the file and then select download to your local computer
- The datasets provided were zipped, should have had your Hospital CCN ID in the file name, and contained a mock SAS and CSV file

Subsequent Logins and Downloads

- Subsequent data downloads will follow the same process as the testing process
 - Email from Axway
 - Logging in
 - Downloading data
- Reminder: you must have enough free space on your computer to download your file
